

Activities for Humanities Colleges and Institutions:

1. Organize debates or talk shows on UN SDG12 Responsible Consumption and Production and other SDGs through Fairtrade
2. Encourage students to include sustainability as a major theme while addressing societal fabrications, in their thesis or projects.
3. Procure Fairtrade Labelled products for your gift hampers during events, fests, conferences and seminars.
4. Engage in Murals with Fairtrade theme, selecting a space in your campus, housing society, household using organic colors or by recycling/upcycling/reusing.
5. College merchandise for students and staff members for events at college like fests, exhibitions, seminars can be procured and making sure items sourced are Fairtrade where possible.
6. Post Graduation Students can include Fairtrade as a theme/topic in their research projects or term papers.
7. Develop and propose Fairtrade Resolution and Fair Trade Procurement Policy for the University.
8. Students can collaborate with Fairtrade Group and Town for extension work.
9. Conduct Fundraising campaigns/events for Fairtrade.

10. Procure Fairtrade Labelled products for your college canteen or set up a pop-up Fairtrade tea/coffee stall in your campus.
11. Come up with a Podcast series for Fairtrade
12. Allow students to put together collages, assemble junkyard art or hold poster-making competitions based on Fairtrade themes.