Pratibha Syntex, a vertically integrated manufacturer of knit textile products, has recently partnered with Fair Trade to distribute sewing machines and deposits to 3,024 employees. Backed by elite brands such as Patagonia, Plana and Pact, the initiative aims to bring tangible changes to the overall life of grassroots employees and create a richer work environment.

Baliram Savle, one of the employees who received a fixed deposit to educate their children, thanked management and Fair Trade for giving their children a big dream.

"Sewing machines will pave the way for new income. In the evening, you can make extra money by doing tailoring work," said another associate who chose the sewing machine, Call Dodbu.

Pratibha Syntex, a vertically integrated manufacturer of knit textile products, has recently partnered with Fair Trade to distribute sewing machines and deposits to 3,024 employees. The initiative, backed by elite brands such as Patagonia, Prana and Pact, aims to make a visible difference in the overall life of grassroots employees.

"We are very grateful for the initiative by Fair Trade and our brand partners. Since 2014, our employees have benefited under this program and see their progress over the years. Is satisfying." HS Jha, VP HR, Pratibha Syntex Ltd, Said in a statement.

Fair Trade is one of the most trusted and sustainable trading standards in the world, returning wealth to farmers and workers in developing countries and guaranteeing decent work and decent work.

In particular, Pratibha Syntex has been hosting the Fair Trade Premium Program since 2014. Over the years, employees have been given raincoats, water purifiers, blenders, cookware, refrigerators, washing machines and other appliances.
